Free Crochet Baby Blanket Pattern HOW TO Easy Crochet V Stitch Baby Afghan

Free Crochet Baby Blanket Pattern HOW TO Easy Crochet V Stitch Baby Afghan
If you are looking for an easy crochet baby blanket pattern (great for beginners), but looks impressive! then this free patterns is just for you

I love the simple yet elegant effect you can achieve using the v-stitch for a crochet baby blanket. It creates a warm and cosy crocheted blanket for baby and is an easy crochet pattern to follow or to use to create your own pattern.

The V (shown in pic) is made up of Dc, ch 1, dc in the chain space created by the previous rows V stitch)

Suitable hook size 4.5-5.5mm / I-9 to K-10
Suitable Yarn /sport, baby But I love working this up in a chunky Aran 4/5.
Finished size is 25" x 35" perfect for a stroller pram receiving blanket for extra warmth.

Crochet your starting chain.
Suggested starting chain 88 (or any multiples of 2)

dc in 4th ch from hook. Ch 1, skip next ch, dc in next ch, ch 1, dc in same ch. Skip next 2 chs. Repeat the sequence in  across the row.

At the end of the row, ch 1, skip 2 chs, then work 1 dc in each of the next ch sts.

ch 3, turn.

Row 2: your turning chain counts as the first Dc in the row. Dc in next dc. Ch 1, work 1 v stitch in every previous V st across the row. Ch 1, skip next ch, work 1 dc in last Dc.

you Will continue working Row 2 for the rest of the the length you wish to make the baby blanket.

I finished the blanket in a sc all around and then a simple Double crochet around, making 3 double crochet in each corner stitch. Which you could also thread a ribbon around to give a professional finish to the blanket.
